

YUVA SANGHARSH YATRA

The youth in Maharashtra constitute more than 40% of the population, representing the very future of our state. However, in recent years, youth has been deprived of the necessary support and encouragement from the government to utilize its full potential. Our state grapples with issues such as a soaring unemployment rate, prolonged delays in conducting exams, the prevalence of contractual jobs rather than permanent positions, and a myriad of other challenges that severely jeopardize the prospects of our youth. Now is the moment for us to unite in collective endeavors, to champion the cause of our youth, and to compel the government into formulating policies and making decisions that unequivocally favor the aspirations and well-being of our dynamic and vital younger generation.

MLA Rohit Pawar's decision to embark on a Pad Yatra underscores his commitment to addressing the pressing concerns of Maharashtra's youth, whose issues have been persistently overlooked. Despite having previously raised these critical matters within the Assembly session and resorting to silent protests, the government's response has been disappointingly lacking in concrete actions or promises.

Rohit Pawar's choice to take to the streets through a Pad Yatra reflects a deep-seated conviction that direct engagement with the people is necessary to draw attention to the challenges faced by the youth. By choosing this method of protest, he seeks to amplify the voices of youth whose grievances have fallen on deaf ears in the political corridors, fostering a sense of urgency and demanding the attention that the issues merit.

About Youth Sangharsh Yatra (YSY)

This Pad Yatra is symbolic yet powerful tool to mobilize public support and spotlight the unmet needs of Maharashtra's youth, emphasizing the imperative for the government to act decisively and address these concerns immediately. The YSY celebrates collective efforts, embodying our shared commitment to champion the aspirations of the younger generation.

As a part of the Padyatra, MLA Rohit Pawar will walk from Pune to Nagpur, actively engaging with the public to garner support for resolving the challenges confronting the youth in the state. Throughout the PadYatra, the public will have the opportunity to express their preferences, indicating issues they believe should be prioritized. Upon concluding the Yatra in Nagpur, MLA Rohit Pawar will articulate these concerns in the Assembly.
